

Repair Assistant & Salvage Technician

In Brief:

We're looking for a highly motivated individual with a decent amount of general automotive experience who learns quickly, can adapt to different tasks throughout the day, and can create and maintain organizational systems. You must be physically fit and able to regularly lift 50+ pounds; you will be required to work under cars, on the ground, and in other physically demanding situations. Forklift experience is a major plus.

We are seeking someone with work experience in the automotive industry—a repair shop or salvage yard. Experience working with diesel engines, classic cars and German vehicles is also a plus. You will be assisting our lead technician in our repair shop and doing more advanced technical work in the salvage yard, such as stripping down engines.

Full Job Description:

Primarily consists of dismantling/pulling parts off vehicles in our salvage yard which will also include:

- Adding parts to our online database
- Maintaining inventory organization
- Cleaning and organizing the salvage shop

It will require some amount of computer work. You absolutely must be able to do work on the computer without getting frustrated or intimidated or you will not work out at this company. You must also be able to manage your own labor without continual supervision.

This is a great opportunity to get in on the ground level of a growing company. We are expanding into southern California and expect a lot of growth in the next few years. The more you put into the job, the more you will get out of it.

Pay is $16-$18/hour depending on experience.

After an initial 3-month trial period, you'll receive a raise and benefits.

You must be willing to submit to drug testing for *illegal* drugs.

Please respond with your resume and a brief paragraph detailing both why you are interested in this position and why we should consider you over other applicants. Applications without both will be ignored.

We have no tolerance for discrimination or harassment of any kind. Whether it is based on gender, race, sexual orientation, religion, trans/gender identity, or anything else.
